Dear Parents,

This has been an extremely busy week finalizing our Mother's Day Fashion Show. All week we sang songs, read books, finalized our props & costumes for the fashion show. The students are getting quite excited! Monday, we added the last page to our color book by cutting a very challenging blue bird, gluing it to a sheet entitled, 'Blue as a Bird' and writing our name. We read, "Me and My Mom!" written by Alison Ritchie. Tuesday we went on stage to practice with just the props so we would be more comfortable for Friday. We read, "Clifford's Happy Mother's Day" by Norman Bridwell. Wednesday, we had physical education and some work time. We read, "A Hug For You" by Margaret Anastas. Thursday, we went on stage and had a full dress rehearsal. We read, "Kiss it Better" by Hiawyn Oram. Friday, was very exciting as we welcomed all you beautiful moms to our classroom. I certainly hope you enjoyed yourself as much as we did. Do not forget to look for the fashion show on our local school station, Channel 16. We read, "Does A Kangaroo Have a Mother Too?" by Eric Carle.

We have just received word that the Early Childhood students will not have school Tuesday, May 10. There will be an early release for K through 12 because the electricity will be turned off.

HAPPY MOTHER'S DAY
