

Newspaper Syllabus

Instructor: Ms. Jenny Bechard

Objective:

Our goal will be to report accurate and fair news highlighting the positive aspects of our school system.

This class will be setting up a school newspaper and keeping it updated on a regular basis. We provide a service for the school, as well as the community. Students are involved in the process from the conception to the distribution phase of the newspaper. Therefore, a higher level of responsibility and accountability is required.

Class Outline:

Students will learn about the history of news media, ethics and journalism law, identify types of media and biases within groups, develop skills to write news articles, participate in out of school assignments.

Grading:

Grades will be given for class assignments, as well as production of the newspaper. Missed deadlines will result in failing grades.
